

Proud Southern Warrior

Eleanor of Ashley

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. We are broth-ers at heart, as we share our south-ern pride, we are
2. We will fol-low our king, through moun-tain, glade, and glen; and we'll 6 3. And when we re-turn, vic-tor-ious once a-gain, all the broth-ers in blood as we fight side by side; with stars on our fight by his side, for we are Mer-i-di-an. We, who hear bat-tle's 11 la-dies will cheer, for they are Mer-i-di-an. But we'll keep arm-our shield, all our foes will yield to the might of the Proud South-ern din, won't give out, won't give in: "We will fight," says the near, for in time we'll hear Call to Arms! for the 16 Chorus

War-rior. So on-ward we go to light the torch of war; with the 22 bold Black and White, we'll be march-ing at the fore; and all through our 27

days, it's Mer-i-di-es we'll de-30

fend with our might and our hon-or.